Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

SHERMAN ALL O. K.

CLEVELAND, July 1.—Traveling in a private car, Sherman, the Republican vice-presidential candidate, accompanied by Mrs. Sherman and his physician, will leave Cleveland tomorrow morning and will arrive at Utica, N. Y., his home, tomorrow night.

PENDLETON QUITE DRY.

City of Saloons is at Present a Thing of the Past.

PENDLETON, Or., July 1.—For the first time in its history Pendleton has no saloons. Last night as a night of revelry, but the last hours of the saloon business in Pendleton were not marked by anything more serious than drunken fights and wrestling matches. Those who expected to see a wild time were disappointed. At a late hour last night Judge Bean handed down his decision in the case brought by the saloons, praying for an injunction prohibiting the Sheriff from enforcing the law. "And the injunction prayed for in the complaint will be denied," were the words of the judge.

This final sentence blasted the hopes of the saloon men and today 26 saloon's doors are locked here. It is thought that appeal from the Circuit Court will be useless.

DELEGATES LEAVE.

From New York to Denver Convention in Special Car.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Judge Alton Parker, William F. Sheehan and other delegates from New York left this afternoon for Denver to attend the Democratic convention. Delegation has drafted a set of eulagistic resolutions on President Cleveland which will be presented to the convention with the request that it adjourn for the day as further mark of respect.

A large number of Tammany men were at the depot when the delegation started. Tammany members had a special car. Patrick H. McCarron, whose delegates were unseated in the state convention also left on the same train. He will contest the seats of the Brooklyn delegates elected by the state convention.

KELLOGG SAYS NO.

NEW YORK, July 1.—In contradiction to the many rumors connecting his name with the chairmanship of the republican national committee, Frank B. Kellogg has succeeded in impressing upon his political friends that his name must not be further considered for the chairmanship. His position as counsel for the government in Standard Oil and other prosecutions is in itself held by him to be sufficient to preclude his selection as manager for the Taft campaign.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

LOS ANGELES, July 1.—Mrs. Ada E. Kinney, acting as guardian of Mrs. Goldie R. Ellis, today filed petition for divorce from Joseph E. Ellis, of Portland. The petition was filed at San Bernardino. The petitioner practically asserts that when 14 years old her ward was whipped into marriage with a man she hates. Mrs. Kinney states that her ward is only 16 years old and that Ellis is many years the girl's senior. She declares that the day before the marriage Mrs. R. C. Kinney, a relative with whom the child had been staying since her parents died, lashed her because she wept in anticipation of the wedding. She further charges that Ellis cruelly treated the girl because she showed her dislike of him.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

NORFOLK, July 1.—On petition the Trust Company of American joined in by the railroad itself, Norfolk and Southern Railway was placed in the hands of a receiver today by order of Judge Waddill in the federal court. Thomas Fitzgerald, of New York, is designated as general manager for the receivers. A reorganization committee has also been formed. The road recently bought three other roads incurring indebtedness of $15,000,000. Therefore, the mortgage was given to the Trust Company of America and is now unable to meet the obligation.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Everywhere in Astoria; on the corners, at the matinees, in the houses, in the stores, ladies can be heard talking about the exceptional bonafide bargains to be had at the Gigantic Slaughter Sale now going on at JALOFF'S STYLE STORE, Astoria under the management of Kann Brothers, of San Francisco. The prices on ladies' suits, muslin underwear, parasols, millinery, ribbons, silk petticoats, gloves, coats, wash suits, children's white dresses, etc., have certainly caused a furor, and remember only four and one-half days left to partake of this unusual Feast of Bargains. When we started this sale, we stated that never perhaps will you have another such opportunity, and our anticipations in doing a large business in disposing of our immense surplus stock of high grade ladies' wearing apparel have been more than fulfilled, but we yet have an immense assortment to select from.
